

ILLINOIS PTA BYLAWS 2017-2018

FORE NOTE

The double starred () areas are in conformity with the regulations of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and are required in the bylaws of the state, region(s), councils, and local PTA/PTSA units.

The number symbol (#) areas are required in the bylaws of region(s), councils, and local PTA/PTSA units of the Illinois PTA.

Constituent association refers to all associations in membership with the Illinois PTA, including, councils, and local PTA/PTSA units.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The corporate name of this association is the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the state of Illinois. It is commonly known and will be referred to in these bylaws as the "Illinois PTA."

ARTICLE II - ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION

The articles of organization of a constituent association include (a) the bylaws of such association and (b) the certificate of incorporation or articles of incorporation of such association (in cases in which the association is a corporation) or the articles of association by whatever name (in cases in which the association exists as an unincorporated association).

ARTICLE III - PURPOSES

#Section 1.

The Purposes of the Illinois PTA in common with the Purposes of National PTA are:

- a. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, places of worship, and throughout the community.
- b. To advocate for laws that further the education, health, welfare and safety of children and youth.
- c. To raise the standards of home life.
- d. To advocate for fiscal responsibility regarding public tax dollars in public education funding;
- e. To promote the collaboration and engagement of families and educators in the education of children and youth; and
- f. To engage the public in united efforts to secure the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social well-being of all children and youth.

Section 2.

The Purposes of the Illinois PTA are promoted through an educational program directed toward parents, teachers, and the general public; are developed through conferences, committees, projects, and programs; and are governed and qualified by the basic policies set forth in ARTICLE IV.

Section 3.

The association is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding Section of any future Federal Tax Code (hereinafter "Internal Revenue Code").

ARTICLE IV - BASIC POLICIES

The following are basic policies of the Illinois PTA in common with those of National PTA:

- a. The association shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan.
- b. The name of the association or names of any members in their official capacities shall not be used to endorse or promote a commercial concern or in connection with any partisan interest or for any purpose not appropriately related to promotion of the Purposes of the association.

- c. The association shall not - directly or indirectly - participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office; or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.
- d. The association shall work with the schools to provide quality education for all children and youth and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process establishing school policy, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to boards of education, state education authorities, and local education authorities.
- #e. The Illinois PTA or any of its divisions may cooperate with other organizations and agencies concerned with child welfare, but a PTA representative shall make no commitments as an individual that bind the group represented.
- f. No part of the net earnings of the association shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons except that the association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in ARTICLE III hereof.
- g. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- h. Upon the dissolution of this association, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the association the remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more non-profit funds, foundations, or organizations which have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. +

+ See ARTICLE VI – DIVISIONS, for information on the dissolution of local unit, council, district or region.

ARTICLE V - RELATIONSHIP WITH NATIONAL PTA

Section 1.

The Illinois PTA is a branch of National PTA. The Illinois PTA is a self-governing association with independent legal existence.

ARTICLE XX - COMMITTEE ON STATE AND LOCAL RELATIONSHIPS

Section 1.

There shall be a committee on state and local relationships.

Section 2.

This committee upon the authorization of the executive committee shall review any alleged violations by the constituent association of these bylaws, their own bylaws, or other practices or activities of the constituent association that may tend to defeat the Purposes and basic policies of the Illinois PTA, and shall make prompt report to the state board of directors of the results of such review and of its recommendation for action.

Section 3.

The constituent association shall be given an opportunity to be heard and to respond to the report issued by the committee on state and local relationships. If it is determined by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the state board of directors that there is no appropriate action that can be taken to achieve compliance with the bylaws of the Illinois PTA or the local PTA/PTSA unit bylaws, the charter of the constituent association shall be withdrawn. The status as a local PTA/PTSA unit shall be terminated without further action.

ARTICLE XXI - LEGISLATION

LEGISLATION ACTION.

Section 1.

The Illinois PTA promotes and supports legislation designed to protect all children and youth, and to meet their educational and other welfare needs, in order that they may be better prepared to assume intelligently the increasing responsibilities of citizenship.

The Illinois PTA has continuing responsibility for all laws, which it has supported and a continuing duty to express opposition to laws contrary to its policies.

Legislation action of the Illinois PTA is determined at all times by previously adopted legislation policies as outlined in the Legislation Platform of the Illinois PTA and the legislative program of the National PTA.

LEGISLATION PLATFORM

Section 2.

The legislation platform shall consist of such preamble, items and sub-items of the legislation policies of the Illinois PTA as have been approved by action of convention delegates.

Proposed amendments to the legislation platform must be received ninety (90) days prior to the annual convention for consideration at the convention. Any portion not opened by prior notice may be opened at the convention by a two-thirds (2/3rds) majority vote of the delegates.

RESOLUTIONS

Section 3.

Proposed resolutions shall be published and distributed to the convention body in accordance with prescribed procedures of the state board of directors.

All previously adopted resolutions shall be reviewed annually in accordance with the prescribed procedures of the state board of directors.

Adopted resolutions shall remain active after adoption:

- a. unless within three (3) years the provisions have been met;
- b. for a period of three (3) years at which time they shall be dropped; or
- c. unless designated continuing positions of the Illinois PTA.

CONTINUING POSITIONS

Section 4.

Continuing positions as have been established in accordance with the prescribed procedures of the state board of directors shall be reviewed annually, and shall remain in effect unless dropped by board action.

ARTICLE XXII - STATE CONVENTION

Section 1.

A convention shall be held annually except under the conditions provided within these Bylaws. The exact time and place shall be determined by the state board of directors.

Section 2.

The convention shall be the governing body of the Illinois PTA.

Section 3.

All registered delegates including state board members totaling seventy-five (75) voting members representing a majority of the regions shall constitute a quorum for any annual or special convention.

Section 4.

The privilege of participating as a voting member of the convention shall be extended to accredited delegates upon payment of the registration fee as determined by the state board of directors.

Section 5.

A voting member shall have but one (1) vote. The privilege of making motions, debating, and voting shall be limited to members of the state board of directors and accredited delegates from local PTA/PTSA units, councils, districts, and region(s).

Section 6.

Each local PTA/PTSA unit shall be entitled to be represented at an annual or special convention by its president or president-elect and by other delegates or accredited alternates. Representation of a local PTA/PTSA unit shall be based on the membership on the books of the state treasurer at the close of the preceding fiscal year, as follows:

Unit Membership+	Total Number of Delegates
++ 10 - 24	2
25 - 50	3
51 - 100	4
101 - 150	5
151 - 200	6
201 - 250	7
251 - 300	8

+And one (1) additional delegate for each fifty (50) members or major fraction thereof over three hundred (300) members.

++New local PTA/PTSA unit, local PTA/PTSA unit not affiliated with a school or existing local PTA/PTSA unit where the school enrollment is less than one hundred (100).

Section 7.

Each council shall be entitled to be represented at the state convention by its president and three (3) delegates or accredited alternates.

Section 8.

Each district and region shall be entitled to be represented by four (4) delegates chosen from and by its respective board.

Section 9.

A copy of the minutes of the convention shall be mailed to any delegate who shall have requested same and paid the required fee.

ARTICLE XXIII - CANCELLATION OF STATE CONVENTION

Section 1.

In the event of some great emergency such as war, epidemic or other disaster, the state board of directors shall have authority to determine whether a convention shall be held; a two-thirds (2/3) vote shall decide and the vote may be taken by standard mail or other means. In the event that the convention is not held, the state board of directors shall plan procedures for conducting all necessary business, including the election of officers.

Newly elected officers shall assume their duties on July 1 of the year of their election, or at the close of this meeting, whichever occurs later.

Section 2.

In an election by mail or other means, each qualified delegate may cast a vote in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws.

ARTICLE XXIV - NATIONAL CONVENTION

Section 1.

The Illinois PTA shall be entitled to be represented at the annual convention of National PTA.

Section 2.

The Illinois PTA shall be entitled to accredit delegates to the annual convention as prescribed in the Bylaws of the National PTA.

ARTICLE XXV - ENDOWMENT FUND

Section 1.

There shall be an endowment fund of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) managed by the treasurer, president, and president-elect as trustees under a written agreement of trust with the treasurer acting as chairman of trustees. The executive administrator shall serve as consultant.

ENDOWMENT TRUSTEES

Section 2.

The endowment trustees shall designate an agent approved by the state board of directors who shall act as a depository for the endowment fund. The designated agent shall be authorized to invest and reinvest the fund subject to the approval of the endowment trustees provided that at all times the fund shall be invested in securities designated by state law as "Trust Fund Securities." The designated agent may be changed from time to time at the discretion of the endowment trustees subject always to the approval of the state board of directors.

Section 3.

Contributions, profits from the sale of securities, interest from the sale of securities, and interest from the endowment fund shall be placed in the endowment or scholarship funds of the Illinois PTA at the discretion of the state board of directors.

Section 4.

The state board of directors shall have authority to transfer excess money between the endowment and scholarship funds and shall stipulate the conditions under which these funds may be disbursed.

#ARTICLE XXVI - PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Illinois PTA and its constituent associations in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not in conflict with these bylaws, the Bylaws of National PTA or the articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE XXVII - AMENDMENTS

Section 1.

These bylaws and the articles of incorporation may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote at any annual or special convention of the Illinois PTA.

Section 2.

- a. Amendments may be proposed to the state board of directors by a local PTA/PTSA unit, a region, or members of the state board of directors.
- b. Proposed amendments shall be sent to the bylaws chairman not later than 60 days prior to the second board meeting of the fiscal year.
- c. All proposed amendments shall be submitted to the state board of directors with recommendations from the bylaws committee at the following meeting of the state board of directors.
- d. Proposed amendments not recommended by the state board of directors may be presented by the submitting unit with permission of two-thirds (2/3) of the delegates present and voting at convention.
- e. Notice of the proposed amendments to be presented at convention shall be sent to all local PTA/PTSA unit and council presidents and members of the state board of directors at least sixty (60) days before the annual convention and ten (10) days before a special convention.

Section 3.

In the event a state convention is not held, these bylaws may be amended by mail provided all requirements of these bylaws are met and provided the proposed amendments pertain to an emergency situation.

#Section 4.

The adoption of an amendment to any provision of the Bylaws of the Illinois PTA identified by a double star () shall serve automatically and without the requirement of further action by the constituent association to amend correspondingly the bylaws of each constituent association. Notwithstanding the automatic character of the amending process, the associations shall promptly incorporate such amendments in their respective bylaws.

#Section 5.

Each constituent association shall include in its bylaws provisions corresponding to the provisions of such of these bylaws as are identified by the number symbol (#).

Section 6.

The designation of the number symbol (#) to any article or section of the bylaws of a local PTA/PTSA unit or council shall be considered an amendment and shall follow the process of this article.

Section 7.

All changes to any article or section of the bylaws of a local PTA/PTSA unit or council designated with the number symbol (#) shall be considered an amendment and shall follow the process of this article.

NOTE: The explanation for the symbols used in these bylaws can be found in the fore note.

*Proviso: This becomes affective on July 1, 2017.
