A Star in the Sky

I am a singer
I sing with love and passion
The only way to sing is from your soul
My whole life is based on three notes – Charity, Kindness and Love

I am a dancer
I dance in rhythm and steadiness
I feel the beats when I'm dancing
To remind me to be calm and respect the world

I am an artist
I make my art using imagination
The paint flows steadily, mixing colors
A smooth brush to bring the painting and inspiration to life

I am a student
I listen and do, listen and do
I watch carefully and inspect, getting good grades
Impressing teachers with hard work, fairly earned

I am a blooming daisy
Ready to offer sunshine and petals to whoever needs it
A simple question and nod of a head, and I get to work
Transforming a frown into a big smile; that's called compassion

I am writer
Wanting to inspire people everyday
To spread kindness with words and smiles
To let the world hear my voice
Because I matter.
